AIMP – Business association for interim management re- elects Dr. Harald Schoenfeld into Executive Board

Stuttgart - At the recent General Meeting of the business association "Arbeitskreis Interim Management Provider" (AIMP) in Stuttgart, the founder and managing partner of butterflymanager GmbH, Dr. Harald Schoenfeld (47), was confirmed in his office. Dr. Schoenfeld has been re-elected into the Executive Board and as vice-president of the association for 2010 and 2011. Arbeitskreis Interim Management Provider (AIMP) is composed of noted interim providers from German-speaking Europe. In the growth market of interim management, AIMP is synonymous with transparency, professionalism and quality and guarantees innovation in the interim business. AIMP members must demonstrate a high degree of competence and customer-orientation.

butterflymanager GmbH is regarded as a quality provider in the branch and a specialist for interim positions for the first and second levels of management. The company has a pool of more than 3,500 exclusive interim managers at its disposal. Their national and international areas of operation include covering open positions (bridging vacancies in personnel), project management, restructuring, change and crisis management or setting up new areas and markets of business.
